

The one-day International Conference on *‘‘Contours of Change in Viksit Bharat: Convergence of Language, Economy, Politics and History’’*, held in the hybrid mode on 27th March 2026 at Bhagini Nivedita College, concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation from faculty, researchers, and students.

The inaugural session was graced by the esteemed Chief Guest, Sh. Sunil Deodhar Ji and the insightful keynote address by Prof. Ashwani Mahajan set the tone for meaningful deliberations. The conference served as a dynamic platform for interdisciplinary dialogue and paper presentations in the technical sessions, reflecting on the intersections of language, economy, politics, and history in shaping an inclusive and progressive Viksit Bharat.

