

Costume Competition titled “Reliving the Time and Ideas of Modern Historical Icons” (13 November 2025)

The Itihaas Bodh Society of the Department of History successfully organized a Costume Competition titled “Reliving the Time and Ideas of Modern Historical Icons” on 13 November 2025. The event began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the esteemed Principal Ma’am Prof. Ruby Mishra, Teacher-in-Charge Prof. Rajesh Kumar, Event Coordinator Prof. Nalini Mathur, and respected faculty members, symbolizing knowledge and enlightenment.

This was followed by a felicitation ceremony to express gratitude towards the dignitaries for their continuous support, and an inspiring address by the Principal Ma’am Prof. Ruby Mishra, which motivated students to engage with history in meaningful ways. The highlight of the event was the costume competition, where participants enthusiastically portrayed various historical icons, creatively bringing their ideas, struggles, and contributions to life. A special mention goes to the portrayal of Rani Abbakka, which set a powerful tone for the event. The competition witnessed active and enthusiastic participation from a large number of students, whose energy and creativity made the event vibrant and engaging.

The winners of the competition were Anupriya Singh (1st position), Aparna (2nd position), and Vaishnavy SP (3rd position), while Muskan and Saniya received consolation prizes. Overall, the event was a great success, as many students participated enthusiastically and contributed to making it a memorable and impactful experience.

