

Report on Basant Mahotsav Event Organized by Fashionaire, BNC

The Fashion Society of Bhagini Nivedita College - Fashionaire, successfully organized a captivating event on 29.2.2024 titled "Phulkari" to celebrate Basant Panchami. This event was aimed at embracing the cultural essence of the festival and providing a stage for students to showcase their diverse talents.

The Phulkari event was organized to celebrate the spirit of Basant Panchami and welcome the spring season with enthusiasm and cultural fervor. The event featured an array of performances and activities, which included a stage play that beautifully depicted stories and themes related to Saraswati Puja, Basant Panchami and the spring season, a thematic ramp walk in yellow and vibrant dance performances by students, embodying the joy and energy of spring. The event not only commemorated an important cultural festival but also showcased the rich talents of our students. The overwhelming participation and enthusiasm shown by the students further underscored the success of the event.
